Departure of Teachers in Training under the PNE Program

As part of the National Exceptional Program (NEP) of residential training for the 2019/2020 academic year for the benefit of teacher-researchers, namely Tarek BENLATRECHE, Omar BOUZIANE and Abdelhamid LEBAL received training from seven to eight months to finalize their research work of the doctoral thesis.

Participation of teachers in scientific events

Mr. DJELLAB Mohamed participated in a scientific event with communication entitled: Methods of achieving the objectives of sustainable development in the Arab world, from December 15 to 19, 2019 in Muscat, Sultanat Oman

HULT PRIZE

Preparations for the event have started since December to house the event from the preselection phase to the Hult Prize program which will take place on January 4, 2020 at the National School of Hydraulics (ENSH). The final selection is scheduled for January 11, 2020 in the presence of several CEOs, influencers and other actors as members of the jury.

As a reminder, the Hult Prize is the largest known student competition in this world, an event in which students from all sides participate. It reveals the desire of young people to change and solve the biggest problems known to date in business. Moreover, this competition generates a donation of one million dollars in seed capital to help the winning team with the best idea of start-ups to implement a revolutionary drastic change in the field of environment and sustainable development.
